

HEATHER PECENIAK

PROFILE

Heather is a highly detailed, quality and customer experience focused GIS professional with over ten years of work experience in public safety. She has collaborated with various state and local government entities to help deploy geospatial solutions to provide data-driven results that save lives and property. She is passionate about customer success through geospatial implementation that helps make communities and ecosystems more adaptable to wildfires.

CONTACT

WEBSITE:
www.vibrantplanet.net

EMAIL:
heather@vibrantplanet.net

PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATION

*GIS Certification Institute - GISP
Certification Number: 160515*

EXPERIENCE

Partnership Management & Success Coordinator – Vibrant Planet
2023 – present
Incline Village, Nevada

Senior GIS Specialist - South Metro Fire Rescue
2015 – 2023
Centennial, Colorado

GIS Specialist - Colorado State EOC, IMT - All Hazards Deployment
2019
Lake City, Colorado

GIS Teaching Assistant- University of Denver
2016 – 2019
Denver, Colorado

GIS Analyst - Intrado
2012 – 2015
Longmont, Colorado

GIS Research Assistant - Center for Geospatial Technology
2011 – 2012
Lubbock, Texas

Geography Intern - National Geographic 2011
Washington, D.C

EDUCATION

University of Denver
2015 – 2019
Geographic Information Science (Masters of Science and Graduate Certificate)

Texas Tech University
2007 – 2011
Geography (Bachelor of Arts)
Geographic Information Systems (Minor)